

Call for Applicants

HIROSHIMA UNIVERSITY

た
お
や
か
TAOYAKA

TAOYAKA Program

for creating a flexible,
enduring, peaceful society

- Joint Master's/Doctoral Program at Hiroshima University, JAPAN -

EXPLORE possibilities of culture.

LEAD development.

CHALLENGE
global issues.

Cultural Creation Course

Areas of Study:

- Humanities
 - Geography, History, etc.
- Cultural and Regional Studies
 - Rural Sociology, Cultural Anthropology, etc.

Technical Creation Course

Areas of Study:

- System Cybernetics
 - Systems Engineering, Robotics, etc.
- Semiconductor Electronics & Integration Science
 - Ultra-Small Device Engineering, Integrated Systems, etc.

Social Implementation Course

Areas of Study:

- Development Science
 - Economics, Development Policy, Peace Studies, Transportation Planning, etc.
- Civil and Environmental Engineering
 - Structural Engineering, Water Environmental Engineering, etc.

October 2016 Admission (Second admission) April 2017 Admission

TAOYAKA program offers interdisciplinary educational opportunities to develop young global leaders who can contribute to the realization of multicultural coexistence. A wide range of interdisciplinary course work on campus is integrated with intensive on-site experience in disadvantaged areas in both developed and developing countries, with special emphasis on improving lives by deeply understanding the regional societies and cultures, developing proper technologies, and implementing these to resolve problems that disadvantaged regions confront while working closely with the regions. Students can receive degrees by taking courses taught in English.

Information Sessions

Language: Japanese

1. April 28th 2016 [Thursday] 18:10-19:00

2. May 13rd 2016 [Friday] 16:30-17:20

Hiroshima University Higashi-Hiroshima Campus
Graduate School for International Development and Cooperation (IDEC)
1F Large Conference Room

<Hiroshima University Tokyo Office>

3-3-6 Shibaura, Minato-ku, Tokyo

The Information Session can be joined via Television Conference System at Hiroshima University Tokyo Office Campus Innovation Center (Room #408). * ONLY on April 28th

1. Program Overview
2. Course Overview
3. Admission process
4. Q&A session

Tokyo Office
Map QR Code

IDEC
Map QR Code

Financial Aid

- Scholarship (Taxable)
estimated to be JPY 180,000 - 200,000 per month awarded without repayment requirement
(The scholarship will be provided until March 2020 (scholarships from April 2020 are undecided))
- Financial Support
for conducting researches, presenting at academic conferences, participating in internship programs and other related activities for completing TAOYAKA Program

Contact

TAOYAKA Program Office
1-5-1 Kagamiyama, Higashi-Hiroshima, 739-8529 JAPAN
Tel: +81 (0)82-424-6152

Deadlines

Submission Deadline
for Preliminary Screening:

May 6th, 2016 17:00 PM (JST)

Admission Application
Submission Period:

May 18th - 26th, 2016
17:00 PM (JST)

NOTE: Preliminary Screening for Application Eligibility is required only for those applying under certain criteria. Please check your eligibility with the Application Guideline.

DOWNLOAD APPLICATION
GUIDELINE

E-mail : apply@taoyaka.hiroshima-u.ac.jp

URL: <http://taoyaka.hiroshima-u.ac.jp/english>

