

The 110th TAOYAKA Program Seminar
The 369th IDEC Seminar

ETS in China: from Pilots to National Market

Prof. Dr. Shaozhou Qi

Jean Monnet Chair Professor,

Director of Climate Change and Energy Economics Study Centre (CCEE)

Director of European Study Centre

Standing Vice-president of Hubei Society of World Economics

Editor-in-chief of the Journal of Environmental Economics Research

Wuhan University, China

Abstract:

Based on his academic research and practical experiences as the chief economist of policy design in Hubei ETS pilots and participating the policy design of the national ETS in China, Professor Qi will introduce the global background and tendency of ETS, compare the consistency and conflict of the policy characteristics of the 7 ETS pilots in China, analyze the policy features of the China's national ETS which will be the biggest carbon market in the world and launch in this second half year.

Date: June 14th, Wed.

Time: 4:00PM-5:30PM

Venue: IDEC Large Conference Room

Contact: Shinji Kaneko (Professor, IDEC)

1-5-1 Kagamiyama, Higashi-Hiroshima, 739-8529

E-mail: kshinji@hiroshima-u.ac.jp

<http://taoyaka.hiroshima-u.ac.jp/>

た
お
TAOYAKA
や
か